

Opinion Piece Checklist

Make it clear in the first line what the opinion piece is about.

Focus on key points: Keep it short, do not try to include everything.

Do your research: You should be able to back up your statements with facts.

Give some thought to the layout and structure.

Use Paragraphs.

Be aware of the style and tone you use - does it speak to your intended audience?

Use clear language.

Use short sentences to keep your reader's attention.

Do a spell-check.

Watch out for sweeping statements and opinions that can be easily challenged.
